If you are a degree-seeking student attending the University of Colorado Denver downtown campus for the first time, you are entitled to use this voucher to receive a free student identification card. The cost of this card is covered in your New Student fee.

To obtain your student identification card, please fill out the top portion of this voucher.

You must present the completed voucher and a copy of your course schedule along with picture identification to the ID Center (Tivoli 269) where you will receive your student identification card.

If you purchased a student identification card and were eligible to use this voucher, you are entitled to a $22.00 refund. Please take your paid receipt to the Bursar's Office located in the Student Commons (Academic Building 1) Room 5123 with your student identification card and this voucher to request a refund prior to the end of your first semester as a degree seeking student. The refund will not be issued immediately. A credit of $22.00 will be applied to your student account. There are not cash refunds.

To be completed by the Bursar's Office for SEHD Spring 2020.
